

Across

1. Nail care brand since 1911
6. Back
9. Patches up
14. Wyclef Jean's home country
15. Bar soap brand
16. Famous feminist Jong
17. First words of a Three Dog Night hit
18. "___ Way You Want It" (Journey classic)
19. Rambled
20. Wordsworthian, say
21. Gets off
23. Ship off
24. Go down
25. Took a different path, in a way
27. Hugh Laurie's alma mater
29. Bishop's ceremonial staff
32. Songstress Piaf
35. Competed
36. Ph.D. hurdle since 1936
37. Present perfect, e.g.
38. Kylo ___ (Ben Solo)
39. "___ Hurry (And Don't Know Why)" (Alabama song)
41. $, on a currency exchange board
42. "Paul is dead," say
44. Saltpeter, by another name
45. Upscale department store chain, for short
47. Former Nebraska governor whose name sounds like a gas brand
49. Andean volcano that last erupted in 2016
51. Gig economy company notably criticized for its "bro culture"
55. Singer Walter or writer Jennifer
57. Hindu sage
58. Ward on the tube
59. Patronizing, as a club
61. Likely landing hr.
62. Hunt in "Mission: Impossible"
63. Watts lighting up the silver screen
64. G, if you're in C
65. Notable vocal quality of Garth Brooks
66. Cash substitute
67. With 68-Across, "release the soft pedal," in a piano score
68. See 67-Across

The meta for this puzzle is a song from the '00s whose title has less than 10 letters.

Down

1. Jimmy ___ (alternative to Manolo Blahniks)
2. Both of us, in a txt msg
3. Promotional movie placement, say
4. They might get you into a movie
5. Some frat letters

6. Straw-colored
7. Chris Brown's first hit (with the debatable line "I know what girls want"), or a newspaper editor's instruction
8. Hormone associated with romantic attachment
9. Debussy title word
10. Wipes
11. Like Social Security numbers
12. Big name for trapping small creatures
13. "Circle in the ___" (Belinda Carlisle song)
21. Tokyo, once
22. "How Can I Be ___" (Young Rascals hit)
26. Watergate figure Peter whose name contains a famous sculptor
28. Pass ___
30. Sea eagle
31. Back
32. Vingt-___ (game in a French casino)
33. Brooklynese pronoun
34. Turn signal, e.g.
35. Annoy and then some
38. Most like Tom Waits' voice
40. 28.4 degrees, if you're in Europe
43. ___ about
46. Words that might be said before a French kiss
47. Whitney Houston hit subtitled "Shoop Shoop"
48. Midnight, sometimes
50. ___ Place (Manhattan street named for a famous fur trader)
52. Joy of broadcast television
53. Kudu relative
54. Notable vocal quality of Garth Brooks
55. Long stretches
56. Chip dip, for short
60. Q follower?
62. ... and so on